

SRIXON Signs Tennis Equipment Contract with Xu Yi-fan

Chinese pro will be using new SRIXON REVO CV 3.0 tennis racquet

SRIXON Headquarters (Head office: Kobe, Japan; President: Kazuo Kinameri) is pleased to announce it has signed a tennis equipment deal with Xu Yi-fan of China. A member of China's women's national tennis team, Xu will be using the new SRIXON REVO CV 3.0 tennis racquet, which goes on sale March 12.

In the Australian Open in 2016, Xu made it to the semifinals in Women's Doubles and has won three Women's Doubles titles thus far in WTA tournaments. Currently, she is aiming to participate in the next Olympic Games and is a pro to watch going forward.

■ Xu Yi-fan: profile

Date of birth: Aug 8, 1988 (27 years old)

Place of birth: China

Racquet: SRIXON REVO CV 3.0

Bag: SRIXON SPC-2581

Strings: Babolat RPM Blast 125 × VS 130

Rankings: WTA Singles: 214 (as of Jan 18, 2016)

Career high: 148 (Jul 13, 2015)

WTA Doubles: 42 (as of Jan 18, 2016)

Career high: 38 (Aug 10, 2015)

■ Xu Yi-fan: 2015 competition highlights (location, level)

- Australian Open (Australia, Grand Slam), Women's Singles Qualifying, 2nd round; Women's Doubles, 1st round
- Kangaroo Cup International Ladies Open Tennis (Japan, ITF $75,000), Women's Singles, semifinals; Women's Doubles, winner
- China F7 Futures (China, ITF $75,000), Women's Doubles, winner
- French Open (France, Grand Slam), Women's Singles Qualifying, 1st round; Women's Doubles, 2nd round
- $50,000 Ilkley (UK, ITF $50,000), Women's Doubles, winner
- Wimbledon (UK, Grand Slam), Women's Singles, 1st round; Women's Doubles, 1st round
- Bank of the West Classic (US, WTA Premier), Women's Doubles, winner
- US Open (US, Grand Slam), Women's Singles Qualifying, 1st round; Women's Doubles, 1st round
- Tianjin Open (China, WTA International), Women's Doubles, winner